Dr. Robert Hunter appointed President of the Ohio Chapter of the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians

Dayton, Ohio — Robert L. Hunter, DO, FCOFP, was elected as the new president of the Ohio chapter of the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (ACOFP) during a meeting of the organization at the Ohio Osteopathic Symposium, held in Columbus between April 28 and May 1, 2011. Dr. Hunter also co-chaired the symposium, a collaboration between the Ohio Osteopathic Association and Ohio University College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Dr. Hunter, of Buckeye Family Practice, Huber Heights, and Providence Medical Group, will use his new office to help spearhead the ACOFP's goal of promoting excellence in osteopathic family medicine through education, leadership and responsible advocacy. Dr. Hunter will serve in his new position for one year. In 2010, Dr. Hunter was awarded the designation Fellow of the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (FCOFP), signifying recognition of his experience, dedication and contribution to the advancement of family practice. For more information, please contact Yvonne Tudor at Providence Medical Group, phone (937) 297-8999; email ytudor@provmedgroup.com. Buckeye Family Practice is part of the Providence Medical Group; to contact Buckeye, call Dawn Kerr at (937) 233-7146.
